

The actions of Sinclair Broadcasting in this past year
makes it clear that no corporation
should have a monopoly of the public media. First they took off the Dixie Chicks for speaking their minds. Then they banned Koppel's report of those killed in Iraq